2. The delegate selection process is governed by the Charter and Bylaws of the Democratic Party of the United States, the Delegate Selection Rules for the 2020 Democratic National Convention (“Rules”), the Call for the 2020 Democratic National Convention (“Call”), the Regulations of the Rules and Bylaws Committee for the 2020 Democratic National Convention (“Regs.”), the rules of the Democratic Party of Montana, the Montana election code, and this Delegate Selection Plan. (Call II.A)
3. Following the adoption of this Delegate Selection Plan by the State Party Committee, it shall be submitted for review and approval by the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee (“RBC”). The State Party Chair shall be empowered to make any technical revisions to this document as required by the RBC to correct any omissions and/or deficiencies as found by the RBC to ensure its full compliance with Party Rules. Such corrections shall be made by the State Party Chair and the Plan resubmitted to the RBC within 30 days of receipt of notice of the RBC’s findings. (Regs. 2.5, 2.6 & 2.7)
4. Once this Plan has been found in Compliance by the RBC, any amendment to the Plan by the State Party will be submitted to and approved by the RBC before it becomes effective. (Reg. 2.9)

B. Description of Delegate Selection Process

1. Montana will use a proportional representation system based on the results of the primary for apportioning delegates to the 2020 Democratic National Convention. The two Montana Democratic Party Executive Board districts described in the Rules of the Montana Democratic Party (Preamble, Section B5) will be recognized as the districts used for delegate selection, and delegates will be allocated accordingly.

Eastern District: Big Horn, Blaine, Carbon, Carter, Cascade, Chouteau, Custer, Daniels, Dawson, Fallon, Fergus, Gallatin, Garfield, Golden Valley, Hill, Judith Basin, Liberty, McCone, Meagher, Musselshell, Park, Petroleum, Phillips, Powder River, Prairie, Richland, Roosevelt, Rosebud, Sheridan, Stillwater, Sweet Grass, Teton, Toole, Treasure, Valley, Wheatland, Wibaux and Yellowstone Counties

2. The “first determining step” of Montana’s delegate selection process will occur on June 2nd, 2020 with a primary election. This election coincides with the South Dakota, New Mexico and New Jersey primaries.

C. Voter Participation

1. Participation in Montana delegate selection process is open to all voters who wish to participate as Democrats.

- a. Currently, Montana law allows that regular registration closes 30 days before any election. Late registration begins the next day, and ends at the close of polls on Election Day (except from noon until 5:00 P.M. on the day before Election Day). Late registration can only be done at the county election administrator's office.
- b. At no stage of the Montana delegate selection process shall any person be required, directly or indirectly, to pay a cost or fee as a condition for participating. Voluntary contributions to the Party may be made, but under no circumstances shall a contribution be mandatory for participation. (Rule 2.D & Reg. 4.4)
- c. An individual participating in the Delegate selection process will publicly declare their party Preference by filing a Democratic Affirmation Statement with the county chairperson of the county in which they are registered to vote.

2. Montana is participating in the state government-run presidential preference primary that will utilize government-run voting systems. The State Party has taken provable positive steps to:

- a. Promote the acquisition, maintenance and regular replacement of accessible precinct based optical scan systems, wherever possible. (Rule 2.H.1)
- b. Seek enactment of legislation, rules, and policies at the state and local level to ensure that direct recording electronic systems include a voter verified paper trail. (Rule 2.H.2)
- c. Seek enactment of legislation, rules and policies at the state and local level to ensure that both optical scan and direct recording electronic systems include recognized security measures. These measures include automatic routine manual audits comparing paper records to electronic records following every election and prior to certification or results where possible; parallel testing on election day; physical and electronic security for equipment; banning use of wireless components and connections except where required to provide a voter with a disability a secure and approved means to access voting material and exercise the right to vote; public disclosure of software design; use of transparent and random selection for all auditing procedures; and effective procedures for addressing evidence of fraud or error. (Rule 2.H.3)

3. Scheduling of Delegate Selection Meetings

6. Fair Reflection of Presidential Preference

- a. Presidential Primary - Proportional Representation Plan (Rules 14.A, 14.B & 14.D)

The Montana presidential primary election is a "binding" primary. Accordingly, delegate positions shall be allocated so as to fairly reflect the expressed presidential (or uncommitted) preference of the primary voters in each district. The National Convention delegates selected at the district level shall be allocated in proportion to the percentage of the primary vote won in that district by each preference, except that preferences falling below a 15% threshold shall not be awarded any delegates.
- b. Within a district, if no presidential preference reaches a 15% threshold, the threshold shall be the percentage of the vote received in that district by the front-runner minus 10%. (Rule 14.F)
- c. County and District-Level Delegate Selection

The County-Level Delegate Selection Plan for Montana provides for allocation of delegate positions to presidential preferences through a primary/convention system. Following the primary election, supporters of candidates receiving sufficient votes to qualify for delegates to the national convention will gather in county conventions on June 4th, 2020, to choose delegates to the state convention. Each county will have a set number of delegates previously determined by the State Chair. The state convention will be held on June 6th, 2020, at a location to be determined.

The number of delegates to be elected from each county shall be determined by the State Chair and apportioned on the basis of a formula giving equal weight to the vote for the Democratic candidates in the 2016 Presidential and Gubernatorial elections.

The county with the least delegates according to this formula shall be entitled to a minimum of one (1) delegate for each presidential candidate receiving 15% or more of the votes cast in that county in the presidential primary election. Counties with proportionally more delegates according to the formula shall be entitled to proportionally larger delegations, up to a maximum of 30 delegates from any one county.

The county conventions will be held in the county seat at a public place which would be most likely to encourage the participation of all Democrats, shall begin at a reasonable hour and shall be run by the county chair in accordance with state party rules.

No person shall participate in more than one county convention. Each person may vote for delegates supporting only one presidential candidate.

The procedure for selecting delegates to the District and State Conventions shall be as follows:

- i. Any registered voter having publicly declared to be a Democrat from the county may participate in the county convention if he or she has filed with the County Democratic Central Committee by at least the opening of the convention on forms designated by the State Chair. Such forms shall include a statement of support for the candidate of his or her choice and a public affirmation of their Democratic affiliation.
- ii. The county chair will designate appropriate areas of the convention facility as sites for the caucuses of the supporters of the respective presidential candidates, as well as a nominating caucus identified as “no-preference,” providing each has met the threshold set for that county. He or she will announce the amount of time allowed for caucusing and will insure that all caucuses will be held simultaneously. The county chair may appoint a temporary chair for each caucus.
- iii. Caucuses for each presidential candidate will be held to elect district and state delegates and alternates. No caucus will be held for any presidential candidate who has not earned at least one delegate from Montana. Any Democratic resident of the county who is a qualified voter and has completed the forms prescribed in Section III.A.6.C(i), may be elected as a delegate to the District and State Conventions. Each caucus will elect the number of state delegates and alternates allowed to it as determined by the share of votes received in the county by its presidential candidate, and as announced after the primary election by the State Chair. Following nominations, the caucus chair will present to the caucus the list of nominees (ballot should be used) and announce the number of delegates to be elected from the list. The caucus chair and secretary or a committee appointed by them will tabulate the election results. Beginning with the person receiving the highest number of votes and proceeding to the person with the next highest total, the chair and secretary will certify the election as state delegates of that number of people allowed to this particular presidential candidate. Proceeding in a like manner, the chair and secretary will certify an equal number of people elected as alternates for this presidential candidate.

- iv. The election of delegates and alternates having been completed, the caucus chair will then present the list of state delegates and alternates to the county chair. A tie for the last delegate position will be broken by a run-off election between/among those who tied.
- v. The county caucus having completed its work, the county chair and secretary will sign certificates of election for all delegates and alternates. (These certificates will be provided by the State Chair and will include a statement of support for their candidate.) After verifying that the proper number of delegates and alternates have been elected and that the presidential preference of each is clearly stated, the county chair shall immediately forward the certificates to the Montana Democratic Party.
- vi. Should any delegate elected to the District or State Presidential Delegate Conventions be unable to attend, he or she may designate an elected alternate from the same caucus to attend in his or her place by submitting the name of such alternate in writing to the State Chair. In the absence of such designation, the alternate from the caucus who received the most votes shall attend. In the event there is no alternate, the State Chair may select one upon consultation with the candidate's agent.

7. Equal Division of District-Level Delegates

- a. To ensure the district-level delegates are equally divided between men and women, delegate positions within each district will be designated by presidential preference beginning with the highest vote-getting presidential preference. This assignment of delegate positions, alternating by sex as mathematically practicable, will continue with the next highest vote-getting preferences in descending order until the gender of each position has been assigned. (Rule 6.C., Rule 6.C.1 & Reg. 4.10)
- b. The delegate positions shall be pre-designated so that the gender of the first position to be filled by the winning presidential candidate is pre-determined. Once the allocation of district delegates among presidential preference(s) has been calculated, the remaining delegate positions can be assigned to the presidential preference(s), in order of vote won, alternating by gender.
- c. The 11 delegates and 0 alternates are apportioned to districts as follows:
 - Western District - 6 delegates, 0 alternates
 - Eastern District - 5 delegates, 0 alternates
- d. The above apportionment is based on a formula giving equal weight to the vote for the Democratic candidates in the 2016 presidential and gubernatorial elections.
- e. The Montana primary election is a "binding" primary.
- f. Accordingly, delegate positions shall be allocated so as to fairly reflect the expressed presidential or uncommitted status of the primary voters in each district. Therefore, the national convention delegates elected at the district level shall be allocated in proportion to the percentage of the primary vote won in that district by each preference, except that preference falling below a 15% threshold shall not be awarded any delegates or alternates.
- g. If no presidential preference reaches a 15% threshold, the threshold shall be the percentage of the vote received at each level of the delegate selection process by the front-runner minus 10%.
- h. The procedure for electing district-level delegates to the Democratic National Convention is as follows:
 - i. The State Chair will call to order the state convention and announce the number of delegates and alternates to be selected favoring each presidential candidate from each district as determined by the primary election. The State Chair shall appoint a chair and secretary and said officers shall assume the operation of the convention.

- ii. The convention chair will designate appropriate areas of the convention facility as sites for the simultaneous caucuses of the supporters of the respective presidential candidates, as well as a caucus identified as “no-preference” (if “no preference” has qualified in the primary for an allocation of delegates). He or she will announce the amount of time allowed in caucusing and will insure that all caucuses will be held simultaneously.
- iii. Each delegate will attend the district caucus of the presidential candidate he or she was elected to represent. No delegate may participate in more than one caucus and no one other than a delegate or a seated alternate may nominate or vote in the caucus proceedings. The State Chair may appoint a temporary chair for each caucus. The agenda for each caucus will include selection of a permanent chair, nominations for national delegates and elections of delegates and alternates as applicable. Each caucus will proceed to elect the number of national delegates to which it is entitled, as announced by the State Chair.
- iv. In any matter other than selection of national delegates and alternates put to a vote before the caucus, each delegate will cast one vote. In the selection of delegates to the national convention, each delegate shall cast a weighted vote equal to the total number of votes received in the primary in his or her county by the presidential candidate he or she represents, divided by the number of delegates allotted to his or her county for that candidate. Each ballot shall bear the name or identification code of the person casting it.
- v. Candidates receiving the most votes will be elected until the proper number of delegates are selected. The caucus chair shall sign certificates of election (provided by the State Chair) for the number of delegates allotted to his or her caucus. The candidates for delegate who received the highest number of votes after the last certified delegate shall be certified as alternate delegates from that caucus, until the number of alternate positions for each caucus, as determined by the State Chair, have been filled. A tie for the last delegate position will be broken by a run-off election between/among those who tied.
- vi. After the election of delegates and any other business brought before the caucus, the caucus chair will adjourn the caucus and direct the caucus participants to return to the state convention.
- vii. All delegates elected as a “no-preference” delegate shall attend the “no-preference” caucus. Each shall cast a number of votes equal to the number of “no-preference” votes cast in the primary in his or her county, divided by the number of delegates allotted to his or her county for “no-preference.” Those present will elect a number of delegates to the national convention as announced by the State Chair and in the same manner as other caucuses. Any Democrat may be elected as a delegate from the “no-preference” caucus so long as he or she is a resident of Montana and has not been nominated for national delegate by, nor participated in, any other caucus at the state convention. A candidate for delegate from this caucus must announce at the time of his or her nomination his or her “no-preference” status.

- viii. Each caucus chair shall clearly indicate on the certificate of election the presidential preference of any elected delegate and alternate.
- ix. All caucuses having completed their work, the convention chair will accept all certificates of election as delegates or alternates from the various caucus chairs. After verifying that the proper number of delegates and alternates have been elected, and that the presidential preference of each is clearly stated, the convention chair shall also sign all certificates of election and immediately deliver them to the State Party Chair. The convention chair shall then direct the delegates to convene at the state convention for such business as may be properly brought before it.

8. The State Democratic Party Chair shall certify in writing to the Secretary of the Democratic National Committee (DNC) the election of the state’s district-level delegates and alternates to the Democratic National Convention within ten (10) days after their election. (Rule 8.C & Call IV.A)

2. The State Party has determined the demographic composition of members of the LGBT community, people with disabilities, and youth in the state’s Democratic electorate and furthermore, the State Party has chosen to establish these percentages as goals for representation in the state’s convention delegation.

Group	Percentage of Montana Voting Age Population	Voting Strength within the Party	Percentage of Democratic Electorate	Times Delegate Number (24)	Number of Delegates
Black/African American	0.54%	93%	1.00%	0.24	0
Native American	6.52%	90%	11.74%	2.82	3
Hispanic	2.27%	71%	3.22%	0.77	1
Asian/Pacific Islanders	0.93%	73%	1.36%	0.33	0
LGBT	5.00%	76%	7.60%	1.82	2
People with Disabilities	6.00%	50%	6.00%	1.44	1
Young Voter (18-36)	20.07%	57%	22.88%	5.49	5

* Percentages for Montana voting age population or turnout & voting strength within the Party are based on 2010 Census Data, Montana Secretary of State 2012 age turnout statistics, exit polling from 2012 conducted by the Edison Media Research for the National Election Pool, and exit polling from 2012 conducted by the New York Times.

 No data on the percentage of the Montana electorate with disabilities or exit polls of voting strength of Native Americans within the Party could be found so percentages from the 2012 Delegate Selection Plan have been used for those two figures.

 No evidence was found to suggest People with Disabilities vote overtly partisan either way thus the group has been given a 50% voting strength.

* Each partial delegate number was rounded to the nearest whole number when applied to our total number of delegates allotted to the National Convention.

3. When selecting the at-large portion of the delegation, the demographic composition of the other delegates (district-level, pledged PLEO, and Automatic) shall be compared with the State Party’s goals to achieve an at-large selection process that helps to bring about a representative balance.
4. Use of the at-large delegation to achieve the affirmative action goals established by this Plan does not obviate the need for the State Party to conduct outreach activities such as recruitment, education and training. (Rule 6.A.3)

E. Obligations of Presidential Candidates to Maximize Participation

1. Presidential candidates shall assist the Montana Democratic Party in meeting the demographic representation goals reflected in the Affirmative Action Plan. (Rule 6.H)
2. Each presidential candidate must submit a written statement to the State Democratic Chair by May 11th, 2020 which indicates the specific steps he or she will take to encourage full participation in Montana's delegate selection process, including, but not limited to, procedures by which persons may file as candidates for delegate or alternate. (Rule 6.H.1)
3. Each presidential candidate must submit demographic information with respect to all candidates for delegate and alternate pledged to them. Such information shall be submitted in conjunction with the list of names approved for consideration as delegate and alternate candidates pledged to the presidential candidate. (Rule 6.H.2)
4. Presidential candidates (including uncommitted status) shall use their best effort to ensure that their respective delegations within the state's delegate, alternate and standing committee delegations shall achieve the affirmative action goals reflected in the Affirmative Action Plan and that the respective delegations of each presidential candidate shall be equally divided between men and women. Furthermore, presidential candidates shall use their best efforts at the district level to approve delegate and alternate candidates who meet applicable equal division and affirmative action considerations in order to achieve the affirmative action goals and equal division for their respective delegations. (Rule 6.I & Reg. 4.9)

F. Inclusion Programs

1. To achieve full participation of other groups that may be under-represented in Party affairs, including members of the LGBT community, people with disabilities and youth, the Montana Democratic Party has adopted and will implement Inclusion Programs.
2. The State Party has taken reasonable steps to determine the composition of members of the LGBT community, people with disabilities, and youth in the state's Democratic electorate. (Reg. 4.7.C.iii)
3. In securing this level of full participation, the State Party will conduct the education and publicity outreach efforts outlined in Sections B and C of this section respectively.
4. The State Party will make accommodations to facilitate greater participation by people with disabilities.

B. Challenges to the Status of the State Party and Challenges to the Plan

1. A challenge to the status of the State Party Committee as the body entitled to sponsor a delegation from that state shall be filed with the Rules and Bylaws Committee not later than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the initiation of the state’s delegate selection process. (Rule 21.A & Reg. 3.4.A)
2. A challenge to the state’s Delegate Selection Plan shall be filed with the Chair of the Montana Democratic Party and the Co-Chairs of the Rules and Bylaws Committee within fifteen (15) calendar days after the adoption of the Plan by the State Party. (Reg. 3.4.B) which should be consulted for a detailed explanation of challenge procedures.

C. Challenges to Implementation

1. A challenge may be brought alleging that a specific requirement of an approved Plan has not been properly implemented. Jurisdiction over all challenges initiated in a timely fashion shall reside with either the Rules and Bylaws Committee or the Credentials Committee of the National Convention (See Section VII.A above). However, the Rules and Bylaws Committee may provide advice, assistance or interpretations of the Delegate Selection Rules at any stage of the delegate selection process. (Reg. 3.1.C)
2. An implementation challenge brought before the Rules and Bylaws Committee is initiated by filing a written challenge with the State Party Committee and with the Rules and Bylaws Committee not later than fifteen (15) days after the alleged violation occurred. The State Party has twenty-one (21) days to render a decision. Within ten (10) days of the decision, any party to the challenge may appeal it to the Rules and Bylaws Committee. If in fact, the State Party renders no decision, any party to the challenge may request the Rules and Bylaws Committee to process it. 3. Performance under an approved Affirmative Action Plan and composition of the convention delegation shall be considered relevant evidence in the challenge to any state delegation. If a State Party has adopted and implemented an approved affirmative action program, the State Party shall not be subject to challenge based solely on delegation composition or primary results. (Rule 6.B) The procedures are the same for challenges alleging failure to properly implement the Affirmative Action section of a Plan, except that such challenges must be filed not later than thirty (30) days prior to the initiation of the state's delegate selection process. (Reg. 3.4.C)
